Dear Judge:

I am glad to learn that the sedan was delivered to you last evening and sincerely hope that you derive much pleasure through its use.

Your daughter has every promise of becoming an efficient operator and, under your direction, will undoubtedly be the means of many mutual enjoyments these fine summer evenings.

The old car I will keep in good shape, as when you owned it, and it will form a valued link in my collection of mementoes of the past.

With my very best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Henry Ford
